

Figure S4: Individual marginal effect curves of the top eight variables most strongly related to land type occurrence. Only a random sample of 500 from the  $n$  curves is shown with the dark and thin curves. For comparability, the curves are centred to the mean prediction for the left-most, minimum value of each predictor.